New Business:

Before continuing, Dr. Doub reminded Board members about an email he sent regarding changing the Board meeting time and asked that everyone look at their schedules and get back to him.

Health Director's Annual Report – Mr. Marlon Hunter presented his Annual Health Director's Report on what has happened over the past year in the department and his Work Plan for the coming year. He highlighted each of the following three divisions and mentioned a few of their many accomplishments over the past year (copy of complete report on file in the Administrative Binder) .

- Internal Health Services - Quintana Stewart, Administrator
- Community Health Services - Edwin Stott, Administrator
- Personal Health Services - Lynne Mitchell, Administrator

You may also find the complete report on the department's webpage at the following link:

Mr. Hunter concluded his presentation by thanking the Administrators and their staff for all of their hard work. He expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to still be here after 5 years and looks forward to many more years. Ms. Whisenhunt thanked Mr. Hunter for all his work.

Lead Update - Ms. Sheryl Emory reported Environmental Health has been working with the Epidemiology Section of the NC Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS) to discuss the impact of two local businesses that work with lead, on the lead levels in children. Forums were held with representatives of both businesses to provide information about the Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program. Presenters at the forums included representatives of the local health department and NCDHHS.
